

Facilities, Equipment, and Other Resources

Augusta University provides PI Harley Eades with nine feet by eight feet of office space to conduct both teaching and research within. This office space is also equipped with a wired network connection and a printer. In addition, Augusta University has staff for aiding researchers with grant administration both pre-award and post-award.

Hendrix College provides PI Brent Yorgey with office space, a wireless Internet connection, a printer, as well as a laptop for use in both teaching and research. In addition, Hendrix also has staff for aiding researchers with grant administration.